

Society

The opening session of the General Assembly in Richmond brought a great many prominent men from all parts of the State to the city, and the galleries of both the Senate and the House were crowded with smartly dressed feminine visitors on each morning of the past week. It is quite the thing for fashionable society to attend sessions of the Legislature, and pretty girls and their chaperons may be noted any fine morning ascending the steps to the Capitol or seated in the galleries of the two halls where the lawmakers of the State are at work. Wives and daughters of Senators and Representatives have come to Richmond for the two months that the Legislature will meet, and a great many interesting functions will be tendered them.

The chief society event of the week was the reception given by the Governor of Virginia and Mrs. William Hoopes at the Governor's Hotel and Mrs. Henry C. Stuart. It was a very charming compliment to the next executive and his wife, and has not been done before here in many years. Brilliantly gowned women and a number of distinguished men, all officers of the staff in uniform, members of the General Assembly and a big contingent of fashionable society greeted the two governors and their ladies, and the decorations for the affair were unusually elaborate.

Several handsome luncheons and teas took place last week, and society is very busy filling the days before Lent with affairs of note. At least three big buffet luncheons are to be given next week, and many beautiful homes will be thrown open to guests and decorated in lovely spring flowers.

Richmond—Caughy. The marriage of Miss Mary Kathleen Allen Caughy, daughter of Mrs. Caughy and the late Charles M. Caughy, for many years in the diplomatic service abroad, and Landon P. Edwards, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Landon P. Edwards, of this city, took place at the home of the bride, 219 Governor Street, on Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Miss Alma Higgins of Atlanta, Ga., will be her cousin's maid of honor, and only the immediate families and a few intimate friends will witness the ceremony, which will be performed by the Right Reverend D. J. O'Connell, Bishop of Richmond. No invitations have been issued.

Another Debutant. The second of a series of "debutants" to be given in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel by the Girls' Club will be held on Saturday afternoon, January 21. The first of these affairs, which was given the day after Christmas, was a big success, and fashionable society was out in full force to attend it. Many tables for the entertainment have already been reserved, and the hours will be from 4:30 to 7 o'clock.

At the Woman's Club. To-morrow is "Virginia Day" at the Woman's Club, and Mrs. Christopher Tompkins is chairman of the afternoon. The program, which will be an unusually clever and interesting one, will include an address by Mrs. William G. Standard on "Men, Women and Ways of Other Days." Mrs. Standard is a speaker of great charm and magnetism, and her lecture before the club to-morrow afternoon will be the occasion for a large outpouring of members. The entertainment will begin promptly at 4 o'clock, instead of 5:30, and the attention of all members is called to this change of hour.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Augusta Daniel will meet her class on "English Cathedral" in the parlors of the Woman's Club. Little Miss Anne Wesley Gentry was hostess at a charming children's party given at her home, 2016 West Grace Street, on Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock. Dancing and games amused the guests present, and prizes were won in the guessing contest by Miss Rosabelle Brady and Joseph Curtis, the booby being awarded to Bruce Hazelgrove. The parlors were attractively arranged in quantities of fragrant pink flowers, and the center of the table was decorated with a big pink bowl of flowers. Each child drew a place card attached to a long pink ribbon. Some of Miss Gentry's little friends invited were Misses Louise and Minto Moore, Virginia and Lucile Coleman, Kathleen Rogers, Katherine Grymes, Elizabeth Brown, Dorothy Whitcomb, Rosabelle Brady, Mary Lackland, Katherine Hill, Elizabeth Guy, Elizabeth Chesterman, Ida Beveridge, Moore, Rome Stearns, Thomas Walton, Joseph Curtis, John Powell, Charles Rogers, Ben Lackland, Robert Grymes, James McGraw, Bruce Hazelgrove and Fred Gentry.

German To-Morrow Evening. One of the most important society events of the week will be the second dance of the Dancers' Club, which will be held in the ballroom of the Richmond Hotel to-morrow night at 9 o'clock. Decorations will be unusually elaborate, and a buffet supper will be served at 11 o'clock. The membership of the club includes Colonel Jo Lane Stern, Walter Spencer Robison, John Walter Briggs, Robert W. Leach, John Gilford Skelton, W. H. Palmer, Leigh, Dr. Robert S. Preston, W. Catesby Jones, T. Jean Stubbs, Jr., Robert Leigh Giles, James G. Cook, Richard B. Saunders, John Walter Briggs, Robert W. Leach, Armistead, Carter B. Grundy, Peyton Fleming, Lewis G. Larus, Samuel L. Mrs. de Soto Fitzgerald will be hostess at a buffet luncheon on Friday afternoon at her home, 1812 Mount Vernon Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald also have cards out for a dance on Monday night at the Jefferson.

Leaves for the South. Mrs. H. W. Davis, of Sandy Springs, Md., who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Archer Patterson at their home on the Cary Street Road, left town on Friday to spend some time at City Point, Pa., as the guest of Judge and Mrs. S. C. Graham, whose winter home is near that place. Mrs. Davis expects to visit friends in New Orleans for the Mardi Gras, and will not return to her home until some time late in the spring.

Pretty Wedding. The marriage of Miss Carrie R. Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Brown, to Garland Steadman Ginter will be celebrated on Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. H. D. C. Christian, D. D., of the Seventh Street Baptist Church, at the residence of the bride's parents, 115 West Clay Street, and Mrs. Philip Henry Mason, groomed in cream colored crepe de chine, trimmed in pearls, will play the wedding music. Just before the entry of the bride party, D. N. Richmond will sing "O, Promise Me" and "Hearts and Flowers" will be rendered very softly during the service.

The bride will wear a handsome tailored costume of blue cloth, with a modish hat to match, and will carry a shower bouquet of bride roses and Ribes of the valley. She will wear the groom's gift of pearls. Miss Edith Brown will be her sister's maid of honor, and will wear a lovely gown of white tulle, with a tunic of lace. She will carry an armful of roses. The groomsmen will be Messrs. J. B. King, J. W. Marston, W. K. Reiner and J. E. Finch.

A large number of guests from a distance will come to Richmond to be present at the wedding.

At the Club Room. Dr. W. H. Street will talk to the members of the Art Club of Richmond and their friends on Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the club rooms. Dr. Street's subject will be "Oral Hygiene," and his lecture will be an exceedingly instructive and interesting one. All mothers of the city who are interested, as well as members of the club, are cordially invited to attend. Tea will be poured by the house committee after the lecture is concluded. Miss Mary Baughman is chairman of the afternoon, and will introduce the speaker.

Valentine Party. The Mary Thomas Auxiliary to the Virginia Home for Incurables will give its annual Valentine Party at the Jefferson Hotel on Saturday afternoon, February 11. Plans for the affair were completed at a meeting of the auxiliary held last Wednesday. It will include a large affair from 4 to 6 o'clock, and the other half of the party is one of the society events of each season, and all sorts of novel numbers will compose the afternoon's program. In keeping with the winter theme, the Jefferson will be ray with decorations in red and white.
